

WASHINGTON (August 6) – Congressman Spencer Bachus (AL-6) today urged House Financial Services Committee Chairman Barney Frank to convene a hearing to examine whether Fannie Mae executives improperly implemented the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP) in order to benefit from incentive payments offered by the Treasury Department for mortgage modifications.